- 1. Pro se filing is permitted on Thursdays between 9:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. only.

Complaint for Custody

- ALL parents who have not had their rights formally terminated by the Court must be provided an opportunity to participate in the hearing. The level of involvement of any parent in the life of the child(ren) has no bearing upon the parent's right to participate.
- Because the Court does not serve parties in custody matters, you must provide a complete address for each party named in the matter so that you may serve them properly.
- Please make sure to provide all applicable information and sign and date the Petition and Verification on page 4.
- All captions (Party 1 vs. Party 2) must be completed.

Criminal Record/ Abuse History Verification

- This form is for the Petitioner(s) and his or her household. All other parties will complete this form at the time of the hearing.
- Please make sure to provide all applicable information and sign and date page 4.

Entry of Appearance of Self-Represented Party

- Complete caption and all personal information.
- The bottom portion of the form (Removal or Withdrawal of Counsel of Record) should only be completed if applicable.
- Counsel may represent any party at any time.

Luzerne County Courthouse
Second Floor

5. Using your return address, mail copies of the complete packet, via the postal service, as follows:

- 1 copy by Certified Mail (Return Receipt Requested and Restricted Delivery) unless served by Sheriff or Constable.
- 1 copy by first class mail.

6. Bring the green return receipt card to the hearing as proof of service. If the first class mail is returned to you, bring it to the hearing.

GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING MASTER'S CUSTODY CONFERENCE

The initial master's conference is not a trial before the Judge. Formal testimony similar to a courtroom trial is not generally taken. A "master" is a lawyer who works for the court and he/she will preside over the settlement conference.

The master's conference is in a more informal setting and provides an opportunity to resolve the custody/visitation matter without the necessity of a lengthy, and often-times costly, trial.

The end result of a master's conference is a custody order, later, signed by the Judge, which outlines the provisions of the parties' custody/visitation agreement. If the parties cannot agree to the terms of an agreement, the master will make a recommendation for a hearing before Court or testimony before the Master depending on the circumstances of the case.

The master's conference will be held on the 3rd floor of the Luzerne County Courthouse Annex II, located across the street from the main Courthouse at 113 West North Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA. This is the same building where the Domestic Relations Office (Support) is located.

If you have concerns regarding the fitness of the defendant (respondent), you may request the master to order the other party to undergo appropriate evaluations (i.e., drug and alcohol evaluation, mental health evaluation, home study). You may have to share in the costs of these evaluations. Further, you may also be ordered to undergo evaluations yourself if requested by the other party and if the master believes joint evaluations are needed.

If you believe the other parent's contact should be in a restricted setting (e.g., supervised by a local agency, relative or at a neutral site) you must be prepared to offer current reasons for your request and it would be best if you had supporting evidence, including reports from local agencies, regarding the other parent's mental/physical/social impairments which could limit physical contact.

1. At the conference you must be prepared to discuss the specific terms (times, dates, etc.) of any custodial arrangement.
2. Failure to properly serve the Petition upon the Respondent will result in no action taken at the conference.
3. If Petitioner fails to appear at the conference, the Petition will be dismissed.
